ARTICLE 4 - MEMBERS OR SUPPORTING SOCIETIES: REQUIREMENTS

Supporting societies are National, Supra-national and International Societies/ associations who accept to help develop the WUWHS Association World Congress content and share detailed information about the WUWHS Association activities. This include actions such as promotion of the formal WUWHS Association world congress through their own internal channels, distribution and use of WUWHS Association scientific resources, encouragement of members to attend the congress and distribution of calls to participate in abstract and poster submissions. In exchange, societies will receive visibility on the WUWHS Association website, WUWHS Association formal banners and other activities part of the WUWHS Association world congress.

Supporting societies are entitled to have two nominated voting members in attendance of the General Assembly meeting for discussion of matters pertaining to the WUWHS Association and voting for the next WUWHS venue. The WUWHS Association General Assembly meetings are integral to the World Union of Wound Healing Societies formal congress taking place every four years at the venue of the congress. At the World Congress, Supporting Societies may also apply for the use of special timeslots and meeting space set aside for the purpose of hosting satellite meetings of their own respective society. That program is included in the WUWHS Association Congress Scientific Program.

Societies are able to assume the status as a WUWHS member if they meet the following requirements:

- 4.1 Their purpose is scientific research, training and/or divulgation in relation to wounds and phenomena entailing tissue repair in the broadest sense of the term;
- 4.2 They are legally established in their respective countries;
- 4.3 They are a not for profit entity and registered as such;
- 4.4 They are of a national, supra-national or international dimension;
- 4.5 They are operated by a statute that guarantees the internal application of the principles of democracy and good governance;
- 4.6 Scientific associations having the purpose of study, scientific divulgation and research of disciplines not directly associated or related to wound care are not excluded, but would need executive board approval for inclusion after supplying sufficient supporting documentation to determine merit.

ARTICLE 5 - ACQUIRING THE STATUS OF MEMBER AND BE NAMED HONORARY MEMBERS

The status of Member can be acquired by societies/associations through application to the current WUWHS Executive Board stating interest to participate in the World Wound Healing Congress due to take place; adhering to the provisions of Article 4. Applications should be received at least one year ahead of the congress. The process is as follows:

WORLD UNION OF WOUND HEALING SOCIETIES (WUWHS) BYLAWS

- 5.1 Each country in the world will be entitled to have two national societies as voting members of the WUWHS Association. If a country population exceeds 300 million people, one additional voting national society may be added as Supporting Society of the WUWHS Association;
- 5.2 Each Supporting Society is eligible to appoint two voting members to represent the respective Society in the General Assembly meeting and make decisions in that meeting on behalf of the Society they represent with four votes allowed (population less than 300 million people) and 6 votes per country if that number is exceeded. All Supporting Societies are granted equal rights with regards to participation and voting in the General Assembly meeting;
- 5.3 Any additional society from a country that already has two representative societies in the WUWHS Association who would choose to also be part of the WUWHS Association, can be allowed to partake in all of the activities of WUWHS and attend the General Assembly meeting, apart from having the ability to vote in the General Assembly meeting. This non-voting group of societies was previously known as sister societies and will now be called Non-Voting Societies;
- 5.4 Supra-national or Multi-national Societies adhering to the provisions of Article 4 may also join as WUWHS Supporting Society with two voting members allowed for each, regardless of their country of domicile. Their participation is independent and not counted to be one of the two National Societies per country. The only condition for Supra- and Multi-national societies that consist of multiple chapters functioning under different names in various countries, is to designate one chapter as representative of the respective society at the WUWHS Association;
- 5.5 Societies/Associations that, albeit meeting the requirements pursuant to Article 4, are of national dimension but have their registered office in a different country than the country of operation, can assume the status of Supporting Society as second Society if no more than one Society is already representing that particular country in which the Society is registered. This is subject to Presidential and Executive Board approval;
- 5.6 Honorary Membership may be granted by the President to any member of a Supporting Society in sole discretion for exceptional contributions to the development of WUWHS, the respective Society, or whom the President considers to be deserving of this class of membership. This should be approved by the Executive Board and discussed in the General Assembly meeting. Honorary Membership is a non-voting position with attendance to the General Assembly meeting granted.

ARTICLE 6 - LOSING THE STATUS AS MEMBER AND OR HONORARY MEMBER

The status of "Supporting Society" once earned shall remain permanent during good behaviour until it is informed to the WUWHS Association that withdrawal is needed due to changes in eligibility according to Art.4, or due to the choice to resign from the WUWHS Association.

Resignation from the member society must be in writing and received by the President at least 12 months (one year) before the General Assembly meeting. Any obligation of the member in the year of loss of membership needs to be fulfilled unless otherwise declared by the President.

The status of "Honorary Member" lasts for four years, effective as from admission. The status of honorary members need to be renewed by the president every 4 years.

ARTICLE 7 – ASSETS

The assets of the WUWHS Association consist of assets derived from gifts, donations and contributions from government entities or international entities, NGO's, health agencies, enterprises and assets derived as proceeds from the world Congress, training or research activities.

Assets thus sourced are used for pursuing the purposes of the WUWHS Association. In order to maintain a not-for-profit status, income received during the activities performed, and the portion thereof not absorbed by the costs for its operation or funding initiatives, should be allocated to conclude the WUWHS Association related activities of the past president.

There can be no division of profits and advance payments in favour of any "Supporting Society" or "Honorary Members". Funds shall remain in the domicile of the President for use based on the purpose of the WUWHS Association or handed over to the incoming president, should a surplus be present.

ARTICLE 8 - ASSOCIATION BODIES

The bodies of the WUWHS Association are: The President, the Executive Board, the International Affairs Committee and General Assembly. The WUWHS Association also avails itself of committees which support its institutional activities as shown in the WUWHS Organization Chart.

ARTICLE 9 - THE PRESIDENT

The terms of office for the President of the WUWHS Association is four years from the date of taking office (it may be 3-6 months earlier if needed to correspond with a congress, but not later than the initial transition of office date). The incoming President takes the office of the WUWHS Association every four years regardless of their congress timing. Within 30 days of coming into office the President should announce the full incoming Executive Board. The tenure of such President and Executive Board will be four years from the date of the President taking office.

ARTICLE 10 - THE PRESIDENT'S FUNCTIONS

The President holds the legal representation of the WUWHS Association. The President carries out the following functions:
