

PRODUCT CATEGORY - DRESSINGS

Silicone Gel Sheets

Silicone gel sheets are soft wound covers composed of cross-linked polymers reinforced with or bonded to mesh or fabric. Indicated to prevent or improve the appearance of old and new hypertrophic and keloid scars. Hypertrophic scars occur from poorly designed surgical wound closure, too much tension applied to a surgical wound closure, a wound infection or partial- and full-thickness burns. Keloid scars result from an inherited metabolic alteration in collagen.

www.iiwcg.com